Everyone at Heads Together,

I am writing to thank you for making my time at Heads Together an enjoyable and interesting experience. I thoroughly enjoyed all of my time spent with you and other people I met from outside the company during the two weeks I spent with you.

Whilst working with you, I learnt how to communicate properly on the phone, and I put my new skills to practice through answering the phone, and taking messages for the company. My self-discipline was put to the test, as I had to get to the offices on time everyday, without getting a lift from someone who would take me straight to the building. I had to plan my routes, and which bus I caught, to get into Huddersfield in good time. Just as a small addition, I learnt how to make a coffee properly, and now it seems like a luxury when I drink a coffee, as I make them so well!

Please give all my wishes to the 'master' team at Heads Together, I'll always remember this experience in my life as a fantastic, thoroughly enjoyable one.

Yours sincerely,

Molly Hill
