

“
DON'T GET ME STARTED!
THE HUDDERSFIELD SALON ”

The Salon is a new space in Huddersfield for people who are interested in hearing provocative ideas from engaging speakers, and participating in stimulating debate.

Three upcoming dates for your diary:

* Monday 18th February
6:30 till 8:30pm

'Obesity - are we bingeing on another scare story?'

Speaker: Rob Lyons, Deputy editor of Spiked

* Thursday 13th March
6:30 till 8:30pm

'Sustainability - good for the planet but bad for architecture?'

Speaker: Austin Williams, Director of the Future Cities Project

* Wednesday 16 April
6:30 till 8:30pm

'Should childhood come with a health warning?'

Speaker: Helene Guldberg, Founder of Spiked

VENUE: Café Ollo, The Media Centre, Northumberland Street, Huddersfield

Ticket Price: £5.00 or £12.00 for three available from The Media Centre reception or telephone 0870 990 5000

Refreshments available from 6:00pm

Go to <http://huddersfieldsalon.blogspot.com> for more details

Brought to you by a Fine Bunch of people

Financial Support from Kirklees Metropolitan Council

Design by www.qtcreative.co.uk